

PUBLISHING WITH THE NATURE PORTFOLIO

Speaker

Dr Laura Zinke

Editor-in-Chief of Nature Reviews Clean Technology

Abstract

Dr. Laura Zinke, Chief Editor of Nature Reviews Clean Technology, will present about publishing with the Nature Portfolio, including targeting journals, pitching papers and reviews, and the publication process. She will also introduce Nature Reviews Clean Technology, a new reviews journal from the Nature Reviews Portfolio. Nature Reviews Clean Technology will begin publishing in January 2025 and will curate high-quality, authoritative reviews and opinion from leading and emerging experts. The journal's scope is broad and multidisciplinary, committed to covering the technologies and processes to live more sustainably (for example, by producing or utilizing renewable energy and/or materials, lowering carbon and pollutant emissions, or reducing resource usage) and how clean technologies and processes are implemented.
