

HOW TO GET PUBLISHED IN AN ELSEVIER JOURNAL? HOW TO BECOME AN EDITOR OF AN ELSEVIER JOURNAL?

Speaker

Mr. Pete Lewis

Publisher at Elsevier

Abstract

How to Get Published in an Elsevier Journal?

Featuring guidance from an Elsevier Journal Publisher & Editor, this author workshop will cover the following topics:

1. Manuscript preparation
2. Publication process and the Editor's view
3. Research integrity and publishing ethics
4. Publishing and AI

Thinking about publishing soon? Then don't miss this insightful session from a world-leading publisher!

How to Become an Editor of an Elsevier Journal?

Featuring guidance from an Elsevier Journal Publisher & Editor, this session will cover the following topics:

1. Overview of Editor Responsibilities
2. Types of Editorial Positions
3. Pathways to Becoming an Editor

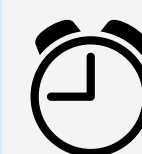

Thinking about an editorial role in the future? Then don't miss this insightful session from a world-leading publisher!

Biography

Pete Lewis is a Publisher at Elsevier with four years of experience across a portfolio of more than 20 academic journals. He currently oversees journals in bioresources and environmental geosciences, including Bioresource Technology – one of the leading journals in its field. Pete has been involved in launching new journals and has a particular interest in research integrity, open access, and the evolving role of AI in scholarly publishing. He is passionate about supporting researchers to communicate their work with the greatest possible impact.

4 September 2026
Friday

10:00am -12:00noon

Room 3574 (Lift 27/28),
Civil Engineering
Conference Room, HKUST

Enquiry:

Ms. Crystal Lau
cecystal@ust.hk